Civil Rights Policy and Procedures for Discrimination Complaints

Purpose
The Illinois Criminal Justice Information Authority (ICJIA) is committed to prohibiting discrimination, in the delivery of services and in employment by ICJIA and ICJIA grantees. ICJIA and ICJIA grantees have a legal and contractual obligation to provide employment and grant-funded services in a discrimination-free manner. Accordingly, this document establishes the policy and procedure for ICJIA to follow regarding civil rights compliance. This policy covers the training of ICJIA staff and ICJIA grantees in the area of civil rights compliance and the process for filing a complaint of discrimination for an ICJIA employee; ICJIA grantee employees; or ICJIA grantee program participants.

Impermissible Discrimination Policy
It is the public policy of the State of Illinois to secure for all individuals within Illinois the freedom from discrimination against any individuals because of his or her race, color, religion, sex, national origin, ancestry, age, order of protection status, marital status, physical or mental disability, military status, pregnancy, sexual orientation, or unfavorable discharge from military service. 775 ILCS 5/1-102(A). Individuals have the right to participate in programs and activities provided by entities funded (in whole or in part) with federal funds regardless of race, color, national origin, sex, religion, disability, and age. In addition, individuals participating in programs provided by entities funded (in whole or in part) pursuant to the Violence Against Women Act have the right to participate in programs and activities regardless of sexual orientation, and gender identity.

ICJIA and ICJIA grantees have the legal and contractual obligation to comply with Federal and State of Illinois non-discrimination laws. Programs funded by ICJIA may be subject to the following laws as applicable based on the specific funding source:
Title VI of the Civil Rights Act (Title VI) of 1964, as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 2000d, and the DOJ implementing regulation, 28 C.F.R. pt. 42, subpts. C & D (prohibiting discrimination in federally assisted programs based on race, color, and national origin in the delivery of services or benefits);

Publication of this Policy

ICJIA will maintain publicly online a copy of this policy, a downloadable complaint form that may be completed manually, and web based forms that may be completed and filed electronically. Upon request, the ICJIA will provide grantees printed copies of the procedure for distribution and display at their facilities.

Notification of Policy

I. Grantee Notification

ICJIA requires all grantees to notify employees and program participants of the grantee’s compliance with Federal and State civil rights laws and the procedure for filing discrimination complaints. This requirement is included in the grant agreement as well as the Civil Rights Compliance Questionnaire completed by each grantee. Grantees are required to certify prior to grant execution that the designated civil rights coordinator, and program staff and match volunteers who have direct contact with program beneficiaries, are provided with an ICJIA-approved civil rights compliance training within the first quarter of the grant period. Upon request, ICJIA may also provide grantees with a sample template for notifying grantees. employees and program participations of impermissible discrimination for distribution and display at their facility.

II. ICJIA Notification
ICJIA will notify its employees regarding prohibited activity and the procedures for filing a discrimination complaint with ICJIA or OCR by posting the notification on ICJIA’s intranet and during the annual civil rights training. The training will include a component regarding prohibited discrimination and a component regarding the complaint procedure. ICJIA also posts the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) notice on the public bulletin board at the ICJIA office. ICJIA will also maintain a copy of this policy on its website.

Complaint Procedures
ICJIA’s General Counsel (CRO) shall serve as the coordinator of complaints alleging discrimination and civil rights violations. While CRO shall serve as the coordinator for all complaints regarding civil rights violations, ICJIA does not have the authority to investigate any alleged discrimination or civil rights violations; but rather, will refer the complaint to the appropriate body for investigation. ICJIA will refer complaints to either/all IDHR, EEOC, or OCR. Complaints should be filed within 180 days or one year, as determined by the relevant statutory violation, of the alleged discriminatory conduct. Additionally, ICJIA will assist IDHR, EEOC, or OCR in conducting their investigation as necessary.

I. Grantee Employee Discrimination Complaints
Grantee employees who believe that they have encountered discrimination in any term or condition of employment, including but not limited to hiring, selection, promotion, transfer, pay, tenure, discharge, or discipline may file a complaint with ICJIA, who will then forward the complaint to the IDHR, the OCR, and/or the EEOC for investigation. The filing of a complaint with ICJIA does not supersede or supplant of any other remedies available at law to the aggrieved party.

Complaint and Limited Release of Information forms can be found on ICJIA’s website at http://www.icjia.org/grants/grant-resources or obtained by contacting the ICJIA at 312-793-
Complaints may be submitted via the ICJIA website, mail, or email. Complaints submitted via mail can be sent to: Illinois Criminal Justice Information Authority, Attn: Civil Rights Officer, 300 West Adams, Suite 200; Chicago, IL 60606. Complaints submitted via email can be sent to CJA.CivilRightsOfficer@illinois.gov. If an oral complaint is submitted, complainants will be assisted by ICJIA staff in completing the Complaint form. Complaints should include the following information: name and contact information of the complainant, name and contact information of the entity or individual complained, date of the discriminatory conduct, and a general description of the discriminatory conduct. Complainants may provide additional documentation or evidence with the complaint. Complainants should also complete a Limited Release of Information form.

If a grantee employee contacts an ICJIA employee other than the CRO regarding allegations of discrimination, whether in person, in writing, or over the telephone, the ICJIA employee will assist the grantee employee in completing a written complaint and submit it to the CRO. If an ICJIA employee receives a written complaint, she or he will forward the complaint to the CRO within three (3) business days.

Following the receipt of a written complaint, the CRO will forward the civil rights discrimination complaint to the IDHR/OCR/EEOC for investigation within five (5) business days of receiving the written complaint from the complainant. The CRO will send the complainant a letter acknowledging receipt of the complaint and explaining that ICJIA forwarded the complaint to the IDHR/OCR/EEOC for investigation and resolution.

If a complainant submits a complaint about a grantee that receives federal funding, the CRO will inform the complainant that he or she may also file a complaint directly with the OCR at the following address: Office for Civil Rights; Office of Justice Programs; U.S. Department of Justice; 810 Seventh Street N.W.; Washington, DC 20531 or by visiting: https://ojp.gov/about/ocr/complaint.htm. The complainant may submit a complaint directly to the EEOC, at https://www.eeoc.gov/employees/howtofile.cfm or to the Illinois Department of Human Rights, at https://www2.illinois.gov/dhr/FilingaCharge/Pages/default.aspx.
II. Grantee Program Participant Discrimination Complaints

If a grantee’s program participant believes that he or she has been discriminated against or that his or her civil rights have been violated by the grantee, the individual may file a complaint with ICJIA’s CRO, who will then forward the complaint to the IDHR or the OCR for investigation. Filing a complaint with ICJIA, does not supersede or supplant of any other remedies available at law to the aggrieved party.

Complaint and Limited Release of Information forms can be found on ICJIA’s website at http://www.icjia.org/grants/grant-resources or obtained by contacting the ICJIA at 312-793-8550. Complaints may be submitted via the ICJIA website, mail, or email. Complaints submitted via mail can be sent to: Illinois Criminal Justice Information Authority, Attn: Civil Rights Officer, 300 West Adams, Suite 200; Chicago, IL 60606. Complaints submitted via email can be sent to CJA.CivilRightsOfficer@illinois.gov. If an oral complaint is submitted, complainants will be assisted by ICJIA staff in completing the Complaint form. Complaints should include the following information: name and contact information of the complainant, name and contact information of the entity or individual complained, date of the discriminatory conduct, and a general description of the discriminatory conduct. Complainants may provide additional documentation or evidence with the complaint. Complainants should also complete a Limited Release of Information form.

If a grantee program participant contacts an ICJIA employee other than the CRO regarding allegations of discrimination, whether in person, in writing, or over the telephone, the ICJIA employee will assist the program participant in completing a written complaint and submit it to the CRO. If an ICJIA employee receives a written complaint, s/he will forward the complaint to the CRO within three (3) business days.

Following the receipt of a written complaint, the CRO will forward the civil rights discrimination complaint to the IDHR/OCR for investigation within five (5) business days of receiving the written complaint from the complainant. The CRO will send the complainant a letter acknowledging receipt of the complaint and explaining that ICJIA forwarded the complaint to the IDHR/OCR for investigation and resolution.
If a complainant submits a complaint about a grantee that receives federal funding, the CRO will inform the complainant that he or she may also file a complaint directly with the OCR at the following address: Office for Civil Rights; Office of Justice Programs; U.S. Department of Justice; 810 Seventh Street N.W.; Washington, DC 20531 or by visiting: https://ojp.gov/about/ocr/complaint.htm. The complainant may submit a complaint directly to the Illinois Department of Human Rights, at https://www2.illinois.gov/dhr/FilingaCharge/Pages/default.aspx.

III. ICJIA Employee Discrimination Complaints

If an ICJIA employee believes that he or she has been discriminated against or that his or her civil rights have been violated by ICJIA, the ICJIA employee may file a complaint in accordance with the grievance procedures as outlined in the Illinois Personnel Code and Illinois Personnel Rules. If the ICJIA employee is covered by the AFSCME Master Contract, the employee may file a grievance in accordance with the AFSCME Master Contract. An ICJIA employee may also file a complaint directly with the EEOC or OCR.

Upon the filing of a complaint by an ICJIA employee, the CRO will inform the complainant that he or she may also file a complaint directly with the OCR at the following address: Office for Civil Rights; Office of Justice Programs; U.S. Department of Justice; 810 Seventh Street N.W.; Washington, DC 20531 or by visiting: https://ojp.gov/about/ocr/complaint.htm. The complainant may submit a complaint directly to the EEOC, at https://www.eeoc.gov/employees/howtofile.cfm or to the Illinois Department of Human Rights, at https://www2.illinois.gov/dhr/FilingaCharge/Pages/default.aspx.
