

ADULT REDEPLOY ILLINOIS

GOAL: To safely divert non-violent offenders from prison to more effective and less expensive community-based supervision and services by providing local funding and technical assistance.

Adult Redeploy Illinois sites use grant funds to design and implement local programs that address offenders' risks and needs and leverage their assets (family support, employment) to improve public safety and offender outcomes.

Significant positive impact:

19 sites* operating

38 local diversion programs

serving 38 counties
(*3 county sites ended ARI programs due to budget crisis)

2,826 total diverted
(Jan 2011-September 2016)

1,259 / 1,194
served diverted last quarter (July-Sept 2016)

$91.4 million total saved
(prison per capita cost less average ARI cost)

$5.7 million saved
last quarter (July-September 2016)

Key Components

- Assessment of risk, needs and assets
- Evidence-based and promising practices
- Performance measurement and evaluation
- Annual report to Governor and General Assembly

Local Programs

- 27 Problem-solving courts
 - 22 Drug courts
 - 5 Mental health courts (2 with veterans treatment track)
- 11 Intensive supervision probation with services programs (1 HOPE probation)

Results

- Reduced prison over-crowding
- Lower costs to taxpayers
- End to the expensive and vicious cycle of crime and incarceration

LESS EXPENSIVE

Cost of a year in prison (FY15): $23,400/person, Cost of average ARI intervention: $4,400/person

MORE EFFECTIVE

Evidence-based practices utilized by Adult Redeploy Illinois pilot sites can reduce recidivism up to 20%.
